FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEHI SELECTS DARREN PAUL AS NEW POLICE CHIEF

Current Lehi Patrol Lieutenant to Begin Service Immediately

Lehi, Utah | November 24, 2014 – Lehi City has selected Lieutenant Darren Paul as its new police chief. Paul will begin his service as Lehi Police Chief immediately.

Paul brings 20 years of law enforcement experience to the chief position, all of them spent with the Lehi Police Department. Paul was selected from a large group of highly-qualified candidates from across the country. Paul has worked his way up the ranks of the Lehi Police Department, spending time as a patrol officer, detective, and sergeant. He has spent the past seven years as the lieutenant responsible for the patrol division of the department.

“I am excited and humbled at the opportunity to serve our community as the police chief,” said Paul. Paul continued, “I look forward to working with the outstanding officers in the Lehi Police Department to provide the best possible public safety services to the citizens of Lehi.”

Lehi City Administrator Derek Todd shares Paul’s excitement, “I am pleased that we have the opportunity to promote Darren to be our next police chief. We had an amazing group of professionals apply for the position, and Darren clearly emerged as the best candidate. I know that he will be able to provide excellent leadership for our police department for many years.”

In addition to his police experience, Paul has obtained an Associate Degree in Criminal Justice from Utah Valley University, a Bachelor’s Degree in Emergency Services Management from Utah Valley University, and a Master of Public Administration from Brigham Young University.
