Reflecting on 2024: A Year of Progress and Community

WRITTEN BY MAYOR MARK JOHNSON

As we begin a new year, I want to reflect on the remarkable progress, resilience, and sense of community that define Lehi City. Together, we have achieved milestones that will shape our future while preserving the unique character that makes Lehi special.

In January, we welcomed Heather Newall and Michelle Stallings to the Lehi City Council. Their leadership and vision have already made a positive impact.

This past year marked significant advancements in our infrastructure and services. The groundbreaking of our new Civic Center laid the foundation for a hub of innovation and community engagement. Meanwhile, Station 84 opened on the city's west side, ensuring improved emergency response times and enhanced safety for our growing population. Lehi Fiber reached its first anniversary, with a full buildout expected by the end of summer 2025, ensuring connectivity for our residents and businesses. The 2300 West project is also underway, making essential improvements that prioritize accessibility, safety, and mobility for our community.

Our commitment to sustainability and quality of life shone brightly in 2024. We celebrated the conservation of 900 acres of open space in collaboration with Draper City and the Traverse Mountain Trails Association. Additionally, Lehi opened four new parks, including the much-anticipated Family Park, along with Holbrook Park, Salix Park, and Shadow Ridge. The Lehi Parks and Recreation Department earned the Utah Recreation and Parks Association's Innovation of the Year award for the Lehi Ice Rink – a testament to their dedication and excellence.

Lehi's annual events and traditions brought our community together in unforgettable ways. The Lehi Round-Up was a standout success, featuring its first-ever four-day rodeo to meet growing demand and a magical "Once Upon a Time" theme that enlivened the streets. Highlights included the return of Ned LeDoux, who delivered an unforgettable performance. Another meaningful tradition was the 9/11 Day of Service, where Lehi City partnered with Lehi Serves to offer volunteer opportunities for residents and leaders of all ages. This day of reflection and community service showcased the resilience and unity of the American spirit.

In the fall, Family Park hosted its inaugural concert, with The Bacon Brothers captivating the audience on the soccer field. Lehi City's ice rink also made a much-anticipated return this year, now larger than before and equivalent to half the size of an NHL hockey rink. New additions to the rink include hockey lessons and themed nights, such as the popular Grizzlies Night and Taylor Swift Night. These enhancements have made the ice rink a centerpiece of winter fun and a favorite gathering spot for the community.

These events and enhancements continue to strengthen our community bonds and enrich life in Lehi. Watching Lehi residents come together to celebrate these cherished traditions is truly priceless. Reflecting on 2024, I am inspired by the strength, compassion, and determination of Lehi's residents. Lehi is more than a city—it is a place where neighbors support one another, and together, we achieve incredible things.

As we step into 2025, let us carry forward the spirit of progress and connection that makes Lehi exceptional. Thank you for being part of our journey and for your unwavering support. Wishing you a joyful holiday season and a prosperous new year!

Sincerely,
Mayor Mark Johnson
